PRESS RELEASE

THE HARROGATE ANTIQUE AND FINE ART FAIR

28th April to 2nd May 2011

Patron: Baroness Masham of Ilton

The Harrogate Antique and Fine Art Fair is a local Fair for international people. Encompassing a huge variety of periods, trends and styles, the Fair re-asserts its position each spring as one of the finest fairs in the country. With quality as its cornerstone, a huge diversity of antiques and fine art reflecting many hundreds of years are on sale at the Harrogate International Centre from 28th April to 2nd May 2011.

With its ample parking facilities and excellent food, the International Centre provides a wonderful base for a day exploring the range of antique furniture, porcelain, silver and paintings on offer. There is something to interest everyone and the dealers, many of whom have shown here for years, are more than happy to discuss the objects they love and explain about investment, ownership and use of the beautiful pieces that will be on show.

Showing fine art will be Walker Galleries of Harrogate, Haynes Fine Art of Broadway, Willow Gallery and Rowles Fine Art. Specialist company Art of the Imagination are returning with their stunning illustrations. Fine jewellery will be represented by Howards of Stratford, St James Antiques of Manchester, Sheldon Shapiro and Licht & Morrison of Mayfair. Silver will be shown by Jack Shaw & Co from Ilkley and Northern Clocks are back with their fascinating range of clocks and barometers. Pottery and porcelain from Roger de Ville, Valerie Main, John Newton and Philip Carrol. There will be furniture from Millington Adams, Corfield Potashnick, S & S Timms, Church Street Antiques.

A Gala Reception on Thursday, 28th April 2011 will be raising money for the Motor Neurone Disease Association. There will also be exciting events to celebrate the Royal Wedding – watch this space!
